

Alex Gwyn

AlexKGwyn@gmail.com

214-918-4858

AlexGwyn.com

I am an experienced Android developer passionate about creating beautiful applications with polished user experiences. I aspire to work on products that can have a real impact on people's lives and leverage my 5 years of experience working with Android.

Education

The University of Texas at Dallas - BS Computer Science, May 2016

Technical Expertise

Programming Languages: Java, C++, C#

Applications: Android Studio, Eclipse, Visual Studio, Microsoft Office, Git

Operating Systems: OSX, Windows

Experience

Oven Bits, Android Developer

September 2014 - Present

- Built a customizable, social driven e-commerce app in use by major brands including Giggle, LUSH, Indeed, Urban Decay and Rainbow
- Created an internal app for measuring and strengthening company culture

Jump Space Apps, Cofounder and Lead Android Developer

July 2013 - Present

- Cofounded a company to provide mobile solutions to small and medium sized businesses
- Managed, architected and developed over a dozen client applications

Capital One Coding For Good Hackathon

November 2014

- Developed a contextual application to help increase financial literacy in teens
- Placed 1st amongst 11 teams from around DFW

Bottlerocket, Android Development Intern

May - August 2014

- Worked with an established team to implement video streaming applications for NBC, Syfy, Esquire, Telemundo, USA and Bravo
- Created a framework to allow designers to iterate on app designs directly from a device

Android Developer

June 2011 - Present

- Began developing with the Android SDK in June 2011
- Worked with the City of Richardson to develop an app for the 2013 WildFlower Festival
- Published several personal and professional projects including Equation Solver, Pixelator, and PVP Live
- Currently have over 250,000 downloads on personal applications